Product discontinuation

Dear Customer,

Despite of our best intention, we are sorry to announce that the production of

RFD77101 (“Simblee”) Modules and related sensor kits will not be further supported.

Please refer to page 2 for the complete product list affected.

Following the acquisition and integration of RF Digital Inc., a careful analysis revealed that RFD77101 does not meet the high quality standards ams guarantees across our broad product portfolio and upon which our reputation is built.

Quality assurance is a fundamental principle driving what we do and how we consistently deliver value to our customers.

For claims and further information please contact our local sales representatives.

Best regards,
