PCN02-2021 - New Invar source for 4LS sensors

Dear Customer,

To ensure the continuous improvement and to reinforce the 4LS supply chain, please be informed that ams AG, in partnership with assembly sub-contractor Focuz Manufacturing Co, LTD, will introduce a new source for the Invar. In addition, the proposed change will also switch from Invar 42 material to Invar 36.

ams AG plans to implement the new source in Q3/2021.

ams AG have assured that the new source will not change the current specifications for the final product.
